

Seating will incorporate inspirational wording. Potential to include 'rainbow benches'

Midland Hawthorn in spring and Silver Birch bark: examples of planting for seasonal colour and effect

Outer meadow symbolising return to nature during the major Covid pandemic

Potential for future educational facility on outer grassland: informal log seating for pupils and teacher

Area of lawn kept open for formal gatherings at memorial events

'Tegula' paving on ceremonial approach to a stone memorial with totem type sentries

Inner lawn upgraded by minor treatment and improved grounds maintenance regime

Outer lawn upgraded by improved grounds maintenance regime

Outer trees to be ultimately larger in size than inner trees

Extra heavy standard trees referencing Covid elements and providing seasonal interest

Seating with inspirational wording

Low shrubs & perennials between seats

Amelanchiers set within meadow area to provide attractive spring colour

Existing path to be repaired and upgraded

Outer wild flora meadow area surrounding the garden and presenting a changing floral display from spring to autumn

Main entrance to the garden: bitmac path with symbolic 2m 'Tegula' interval markers, leading to circular granite slab announcing the site and informational lectern with QR code offering further info

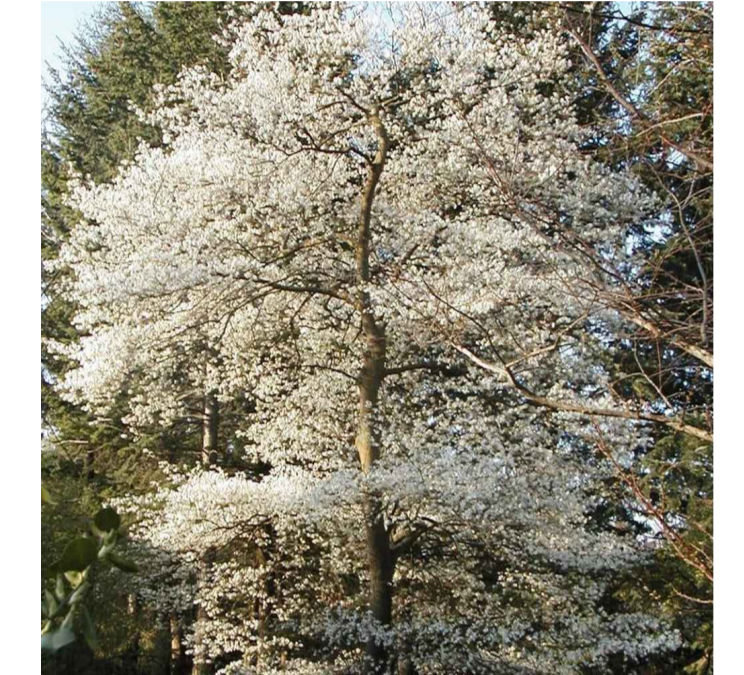

Leigh's Covid Memorial Garden at Lilford Park

RESPECT

Amelanchier displaying stunning autumn colour and a profusion of spring flora

Decorative ground cover planting under the existing Indian Bean tree

Existing large mature tree

Potential for future planting of light blue and white spring crocus

2 floral 'rainbow' beds (annual summer bedding)

Grate-type fence for attaching lasting memory locks

Sandstone boulders for present and future artistic carved wording and symbolism at the two access points

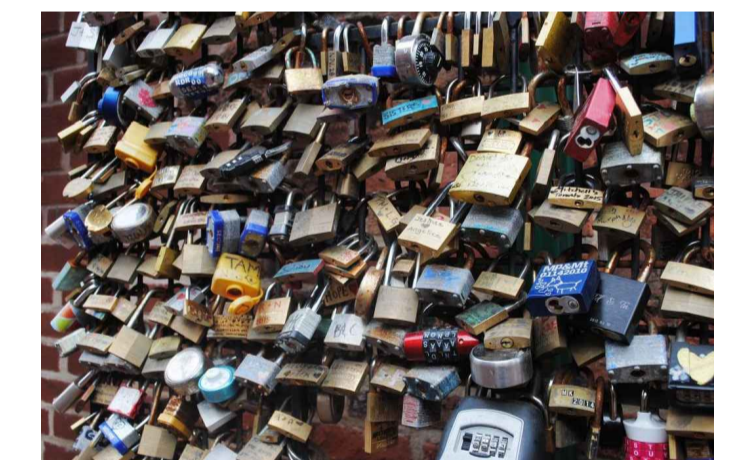

Extra heavy standard trees to frame the main entrance

Numerous links to the garden through park and woodland paths

A garden for quiet reflection sited away from the general busy activity of the park

Rainbow theme utilised within the garden

Facility for visitors to leave messages and memories: also symbolising 'lock down'

Potential for winter floral display with NHS colours

