Facility for visitors to leave messages and memories: also symbolising 'lock down'

The familiar rainbow symbol is acknowledged within the garden

Future potential to continue narcissus

bulb planting on all

site bankings

Wigan's Covid

Memorial Garden at Mesnes Field

Inner lawn upgraded by minor works and improved grounds maintenance regime

Potential for NHS colour winter display following the summer rainbow floral display

Gathering area for ceremonies:

(outside of ceremonies and other formal or arranged occassions the area is designated for general recreation

Amelanchiers set within meadow area to provide Ornamental and planting for seasonal colour and effect symbolic tree

attractive spring colour

Midland Hawthorn in spring and Silver Birch bark: examples of planting for seasonal colour and effect

Existing trees to be pruned and tidied

Amelanchier displaying a profusion of spring flora and stunning autumn colour

Future potential for annual Secondary access to garden:

2 extra heavy standard Ginkgo trees to frame main access (medicinal significance)

Outer meadow symbolising return to nature during the Potential for future educational facility with informal log > and teachers Informal lawn access to the garden seating for pupils

Floral 'rainbow' display bed (annual summer bedding)

Extra heavy standard trees referencing Covid elements and providing seasonal interest floral display beds (a link to nearby Mesnes Park) lawn path with symbolic 2m indicators major Covid pandemic

Existing inner grass area to be maintained for peaceful recreation, plus potential for future picnic tables

Blue and white crocus planting on the gateway near to the Thomas Linacre outpatients acknowledging the skills, Existing trees to be care and dedication of the NHS pruned and tidied

Existing grass edges upgraded to create a formal lawn verge

> Main access to the garden. first leading to ceremonial inscribed granite slab and informational lectern

Grate type low fence facility allowing visitors to 'lock' their memories on Shrub planting 'buffer zone' visually separating the tranquil Covid Memorial Garden and the more active Youth Zone facilities

Seating with inspirational upgraded to create a formal lawn verge wording

Seating with inspirational wording: low shrubs and and Medium size shrubs behind seating

perennials between seating

Outer wild flora meadow area surrounding the garden and presenting a changing floral display from spring to autumn

Existing grass edges

Existing trees to be pruned and tidied

Existing 'fedge' ivy on noise distraction

fencing helps to reduce

Typical urban planting of shrubs at the entrance from the town centre, creating a more inviting approach

*Central memorial area and ceremonial approach notes* Main interpretation panel is 2.5m high by 1.7m wide; 2 secondary panels each 2.5m high by 1m wide _all in Corton steel. Central mesh 'living green' obelisk forming green backdrop to panels - 1.2m at base tapering up to point at 4m high: 4 climbing plants plus ornamental ground cover to surrounding bed. Circular surrounding path of red bitmac and a paved 'Tegula' ceremonial approach path.

*Central memorial area with ceremonial approach _see notes above*

Sandstone boulders at 3 access points for present and future artistic carved lettering and symbolism

Existing privet hedge to be retained and maintained to facilitate filtering of both noise and vehicle pollution

Seating will incorporate inspirational wording. Potential to include 'rainbow benches'