About Wigan Music Service

Our award-winning Music Service is part of the Greater Manchester Music Education Hub and supports children and young people to access a wide range of music making opportunities both in and outside of the classroom. Offering Instrumental music tuition, bands, choirs, orchestras, ensembles and live performance opportunities a team of over 80 music specialists deliver music in schools and colleges throughout the borough as well as nurturing this talent through out of hours music making.

About WigLe Dance CIC

WigLe Dance CIC is the dance development organisation for the Wigan Borough. We are a youth led organisation working hard to provide exciting, high quality dance programmes for Wigan residents and to support the dance ecology in our town. WigLe Dance CIC is committed to providing dance as a creative discipline to a new generation of our borough's youth, inspiring them to experience the freedom and liberation of expression through movement and directing Wigan's young people to live happy, healthy, and socially engaged lives through dance.
