

Social workers in England are required to renew their professional registration with Social Work England each year between 1 September and 30 November. They pay an annual registration fee of £90. UNISON wants to establish which employers have either paid their social worker employees' £90 fee, or reimbursed their social worker employees for the fee, for the 2024/5 registration period.

Please supply the following information:

1. How many social workers did you employ as of February 2025 payroll? Please give your response as a headcount number (i.e. not as FTE) 258
2. Of these employees, how many have you paid or reimbursed their Social Work England registration fee of £90 for the 2024/25 registration period? Please give your response as a headcount number (i.e. not as FTE) N/A - we do not reimburse
3. A copy of any council policy/procedural note on the payment/reimbursement of the Social Work England registration fee. N/A
